

Tokyo Tech Academy of Energy and Informatics

Kick-Off Ceremony

Following Tokyo Tech's proposed Multi-Scope Energy WISE Professionals doctoral degree program was selected as a WISE Program by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT), Tokyo Institute of Technology established the Tokyo Tech Academy of Energy and Informatics as the educational arm of InfoSyEnergy in December 2020.

Collaborations between industry, government and academia is essential to develop our Academy. Therefore, we have wide-raged research and educational activities with collaboration with InfoSyEnergy Research and Education Consortium established in November 2019.

On September 28, we hold Tokyo Tech Academy of Energy and Informatics Kick-Off ceremony as attached.
